

POOL ROOM MEN STAND ON RIGHTS

Demand Speedy Trial or Dismissal of Charge.

REJECT PROSECUTOR'S OFFER

Decline to Accept Agreement, Leaving
"a Club Over Their Heads."

UPPER MARLBORO, Md., April 5.—The Kenilworth poolroom cases will probably not be disposed of before the latter part of this week or next week. There are two counts remaining against Arthur Wall, and two against Percy C. Humphrey, charged with conducting a poolroom at Kenilworth. Originally there were three counts against Wall, but one of these was disposed of at the term of the circuit court last fall, when Wall was found not guilty of the charge.

Offer to "Set" the Case.
States Attorney M. Hampton Magruder has signified his willingness to "set" the cases if the defendants will agree not to reopen the poolroom, and will promise not to start any establishment for the purpose of gambling or betting on horse races.

In answer to the proposition, Attorney Robert W. Wells, who is the leading counsel for the defendants, gave out the following statement this morning: "Our clients' position is that they are not concerned now whether or not they shall resume business at Kenilworth. The same question has been tried and determined in our favor at the last term of court. Our clients are not willing to let the authorities hold a club over their heads, unless what has been done is shown to be unlawful."

Claim Business Was Lawful.

"We contend that the telegraph business which was carried on was entirely lawful. Consequently, upon the principle of every man's right to a speedy trial, we demand that the State shall dismiss the indictments pending against our clients or give us a trial. This is entirely independent of the question of reopening business, but as citizens, our clients are unwilling to rest longer under these indictments."

"So far as we know, the Maryland Telegraph Company has gone out of business for good and all. Mr. Humphrey, father of Percy C. Humphrey, recently died, and it is said, his death has caused a dissolution of the company known as the Maryland Telegraph Company."

PUGET SOUND FLYER DERAILED; MANY HURT

Train Thrown into a Ditch Near St.
Michael, Neb.—No Fatalities Reported.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 5.—Burlington passenger train, the Puget Sound Flyer, westbound, was derailed at 7:30 this morning near St. Michael, Neb., 125 miles west of this city.

The train was pulled by a double-header. Ten coaches were thrown into the ditch, only the two locomotives and the mail car staying on the rails. A message from the scene of the wreck to Burlington headquarters in this city two hours later, stated that there were no fatalities, although the list of injured is large.

INFANTRY WINS AGAIN.

The First Battalion basketball quint initiated its appearance into professional ball last night by losing a slow game to the Washington Light Infantry by 49 to 22.

Captain Shreve, for the Infantry, and Leach, who played pro ball for the first time, for the losers, did the best work for their respective teams.

NOT A DEBATING SOCIETY.

The members of the Board of Education do not intend to make that body a debating society; neither do we propose to permit people, either white or colored, to come before us and attack the board either as a whole or the members individually.

We could not be expected to sit passively and hear our body or one of our members maligned.—President Gordon, of the Board of Education.

Board of Education Stands Upon Dignity

Attacks on Members Either Individually or Collectively Will Not Be Tolerated, Declares President of Organization.

That the Board of Education is determined not to reopen questions which have come before it once and been settled was shown last night at the regular weekly meeting of the body. The board declined to receive a communication from Mrs. Anna E. Murray relative to statements said to have been made by a teacher, Grace M. Campbell, regarding Mrs. Murray's testimony before a subcommittee of the House District Committee. The differences between the two women, growing out of alleged criticism of the management of the colored kindergarten system, were investigated by a committee of the board and charges filed with the board by Mrs. Murray against Miss Campbell were not sustained.

Denied Her a Hearing.

This disposition of the case was not satisfactory to Mrs. Murray, who appeared before the board a week ago and asked for a hearing. This was denied her on the ground that the matter had been disposed of. Last night Mrs. Murray was again at the meeting, this time with a letter, which she handed to the secretary for presentation to the board. The letter was handed to President Gordon, who said: "According to the rule of the board the communication cannot be read aloud."

before it has been read by one of the members."

The letter was handed to Mr. Bundy who, after reading the letter, passed it to President Gordon for his opinion. As soon as President Gordon saw the nature of the communication he announced that it referred to a matter which had been closed, and could not be read at the meeting.

In the opinion of members of the board the letter was an attack upon Mrs. West, chairman of the committee on teachers and janitors, who made the report at the former meeting to which Mrs. Murray took exception.

Brookland's Colored School.

A communication was received by the board from Albert J. Farley and Maurice Spencer requesting that work be started on the colored school in Brookland, for which $26,000 is available. The board stated that the reason for the delay in building the school was that a difference existed between the white and colored population of Brookland regarding the location of the building.

In responding to a request received at the last meeting of the board from H. M. Josephs, a teacher at the M street high school, asking that he be notified whether his appointment was to be permanent or temporary, the board decided last night that in spite of the fact that he was seventy years old his work had been of such a high order that he would be placed on the permanent list.

NEWS OF GEORGETOWN

At the monthly meeting of the Georgetown Citizens' Association last night, at the Co-operative Hall, resolutions upon the late George W. King, vice president of the association, and for many years prominent in all movements affecting the general development of the West End, were adopted.

FOR K STREET BRIDGE.

Patrick J. Brennan, of the special committee, consisting of Messrs. Brennan, Smith Thompson, and J. Barton Miller, which recently had a hearing before one of the Congress committees, in an effort to secure an appropriation for a new bridge across Rock creek, at K street, read a letter before the meeting, from W. J. Douglas, Engineer of Bridges, to the effect that a $28,000 appropriation has been recommended by the Commissioners, and provision for it would be made at this session of Congress.

It is the intention of the Georgetown Citizens' Association to recommend to Mr. Douglas that an arch the width of K street be constructed, instead of a plate-glass bridge.

W. A. DOVE FOUND DEAD.

TEN-YEAR-OLD MISS CAME ALONE FROM CHINA

WOOSTER, Ohio, April 5.—A trip of 14,000 miles by land and sea is a feat just accomplished by ten-year-old Miss Grace Fulton, who has just arrived in this city via the Pennsylvania railroad. The little traveler is a daughter of Dr. Albert Fulton, of Canton, China, and left that city January 2. She was sent to this city to be educated and will go through the public schools and attend Wooster University.

Miss Fulton traversed the entire distance unaccompanied by either friend or acquaintance, her sole guardians being the employees of the steamship and the railroads over which she traveled.

EFFORTS TO AMEND THE EXCLUSION ACT

Proposals to Tone Down Chinese Restrictions.

COMMITTEE FACING PROBLEM

Doubtful if Any Legislation Will Result, Owing to Widely Conflicting Interests.

The efforts to evolve a Chinese exclusion act that will be satisfactory to the opponents of Chinese immigration, to the people of the Pacific coast, and to the diplomats who are trying to straighten out the relations of this Government to that of China, is keeping the House Foreign Affairs Committee busy. Whether any legislation on the subject will pass this session is regarded as doubtful, because of the multiplicity of conflicting interests. But, on the other hand, the Department of State is urging action with all the emphasis it can command, and commercial interests are deeply concerned because of the necessity of placating the Chinese.

Four Amendments Proposed.

Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor has sent to the Foreign Affairs Committee four amendments, which have been drafted with a view to annexing them to the present law. These are known to have at least the tentative approval of the Administration. Two of them, however, are strongly opposed by the people of California and the delegation from that State.

The first amendment provides that officials appointed by the Department of Commerce and Labor shall serve in China to visit the passport and credential offices of Chinese who would emigrate to this country, with the view to determining whether they are of the classes admitted here.

It is further proposed that Chinese who have been excluded, at an American port of entry, by a ruling of the inspector, shall be given the right to appeal to the courts, and during this appeal may be permitted freedom on bail.

Suits the Western Members.

The third proposal is that a re-registration of all Chinese in this country shall be made forthwith following passage of the act. It is claimed there are a great number of Chinese in this country who have no right here. The Western delegations therefore strongly favor this plan.

The fourth proposed amendment is to provide that there shall hereafter be no restrictions on the rights of Chinese who, having once been admitted to this country, and having established themselves here, shall return to their native land and later desire to return to this country.

The whole question of immigration is giving worry to committees, in both houses, because of the extreme variance of views regarding it. In the South, for instance, there is a strong desire to curtail the admission of European immigrants, without regard to educational or property qualifications, because the South is sadly in need of a new force of laborers.

Among these various conflicting interests, it is thought likely that, in the rush of business at the close of the session, all legislation will fail.

FAINTS AT MOUSE; NABS HIGHWAYMAN

LOUISVILLE, April 6.—Mrs. Anna Ditto, employed as a clerk at the Seelbach Hotel, fainted last evening when she saw a paper mache mouse fall out of the pocket of a guest.

Mrs. Ditto was detained late at the hotel, and when she started home she borrowed a revolver from the night clerk. When near her residence, she was confronted by a man who grabbed her purse. She leveled the pistol, took the man by the arm, and started to march him to the corner and wait for a policeman. The highwayman appealed to the sympathy of Mrs. Ditto, saying he had a starving family, and she permitted him to go.

KAISER HONORS AMERICANS

In addition to shaking each of the 136 members by hand, he paid special honor to the two Americans.

STRICKEN IN REICHSTAG

COUNT VON BUELOW,
Chancellor of German Empire.

PARALYSIS FELS COUNT VON BUELOW

Unconscious More Than Hour After Speech

on Algieras.

BERLIN, April 5.—Prince von Buelow, the German chancellor, suffered a paralytic stroke this afternoon. A fainting spell in the reichstag earlier in the day was the forerunner of the more serious attack.

The prince is progressing favorably, considering the nature of his illness. The attack is attributed to the fact that he overtaxed his strength in his efforts in behalf of Germany at the Algieras conference, while he has been under a great strain because of the Moroccan affair for nearly a year.

The Kaiser was hastily summoned, and the crown prince, ministers, and high dignitaries also appeared at Prince von Buelow's palace.

The chancellor had just finished making an address to the reichstag on the Algieras agreement. Suddenly he turned as pale as a ghost and fell heavily in a faint before anyone could reach his side. Deputies of all parties at once rushed to his assistance and he was carried into an anteroom. Medical aid was quickly summoned. Following the collapse of the chancellor the sitting was adjourned.

Three physicians made futile efforts to revive Prince von Buelow in the anteroom to which he was first taken, and he was then conveyed in an unconscious condition to his official residence, a distance of a mile.

For an hour and a quarter the fainting spell lasted and then, responding to the efforts of the doctors, the chancellor opened his eyes.
